9:00-10:15    Concurrent sessions

Capitol View      Leading at the College Level

Don Woolston, Connie Brachman, Laura Grossenbacher, College of Engineering

Three veteran academic staffers relate how they have added value to the operations of their college over the span of their careers, working with faculty, administrators and students.

Langdon          Advocating for Academic Staff

Mo Bischof, PPPC; Heather Daniels, ASEC; Becky Ryan, MASA; Janet Swandby, ASPRO

Class of 1924      What is Your Leadership Style?

Don Schutt, OHRD

Being a leader doesn't require you to be the most extroverted person in the room. Use your own personality to craft a leadership style that is comfortable and effective.

10:15-10:30      Networking and Break

10:30-11:45      Concurrent sessions:

Capitol View      Benefiting from an Academic Staff Position

Joe Corry/Char Tortorice

Two long-time academic staff members will discuss some "hidden" benefits you may not have thought about and how to use them to your best career advantage

Langdon          Trends in Academic Staff

Noel Radomski (WISCAPE) & Bill Steffenhagen (CALS)

Class of 1924      Having Conversations at Work That Work

Steve Pearson, EAP

Often how you say something is more important than what you say. Learn how to use conversation in a positive and productive way to lead a group successfully.

11:45-1:00      Keynote & Lunch

Great Hall      Moving Forward Together: Academic Staff and the Future of the University

Gary Sandefur, Dean, College of Letters and Science
